Jack Reynolds Held On Second Degree Murder

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 13 (AP)—Jack Reynolds, claimant to the world's welterweight wrestling championship, was one of three persons indicted for second degree murder today in connection with a double killing in a cafe fight here last March 1.

With him were indicted his wife, Alice Reynolds, and David Polinsky. The indictment of Reynolds came as a surprise. He had been detained along with several other persons after the cafe fight in which James Meyers, small-time politician and proprietor of the cafe, and Phil Polinsky were wounded fatally, but released.

When he failed to return Thursday evening Sheriff Saxe was notified about 2 o'clock that State Troopers and deputy sheriffs searched all night Thursday evening for traces of the car. The search was confined to roads in the immediate vicinity of the town of Marbletown.

Elmer Williams and Harold Arnold of Lincoln street, who were fishing on the river, came along and on looking over the edge of the high bridge saw the body of a man at the edge of the water.

The finding of the car on the bridge had been reported to Sheriff Saxe and Abram Molyneux, jailor, had been sent to the scene. On arrival the men climbed down the steep bank under the bridge and far enough to see the body. Molyneux said that the body was that of M. Davis.

Eggs at $4 Each Exported by Kauder

Living Kauder, of New Paris, has just completed a shipment of 400 Hatching Eggs to Mr. Belding of Peaslee, Essex, England. Speed was most essential in transporting these eggs this great distance and shipment went forward via S. S. Berengaria, due to arrive at Southampton on April 12.

These ranged in price as high as $4 each and were produced by birds bred and reared in this country, birds of high record, including the present New York state R. O. P. Mexico.

Washington, under the jurisdiction of National University, this bird, during the past year produced 341 eggs. It is a matter of gratification to the country to know that birds have been raised from their native land and exported to a distant part of the world with the purpose in view of improving White Leghorns to that foreign country.

BROWN EVENING COATS OK'D FOR NIFTY NAZIS.

Muenchen (P).—Brown tuxedos and tail-coats instead of the dignified black is the "last cry" at formal evening affairs since the Bavarian ministry of economics confirmed that such garb in no way violates the law for the protection of national symbols.

Nazi party headquarters raised the brown tuxedo to a "dress" for concerts, members of the national socialist reich's symphony orchestra appearing in the new outfit at public performances.

Spain's Adverse Trade Persists.

Madrid (P).—Official statistics show that Spain last year imported goods valued at about $165,000,000 and exported $134,000,000 worth, an unfavorable trade balance of $31,000,000. The debt balance in 1932 was $44,000,000.

Istanbul.—The film industry in Turkey had a most inauspicious debut at the holy village of Eyoub on the Golden Horn at Istanbul. They were pacified without any serious casualties.

TINY THINGS ODD FAD OF COLLECTOR

Microscopic Items Gathered by Seattle Man.

Seattle.—A verse from the Bible, containing 127 letters, written on a piece of glass the size of a pin point and visible only with the aid of a microscope.

A hollow hazelnut containing 3,100 silver spoons.

A grain of rice engraved with 32 Japanese characters.

A seed half as large as your little finger nail containing 33 perfectly carved ivory elephants, visible only with the aid of a magnifying glass.

A one-thousandth-of-a-watt electric light globe that actually lights.

A motorcycle that runs with the aid of an electric motor and puts out like a real machine, yet so small that it may be hidden with the hand.

These are only a few of the 300-odd microscopic items in the unique collection of Jules Charbonneau of this city.

For 33 years Charbonneau has been acquiring tiny things. His original acquisition was a 3-inch umbrella, which he obtained at the Paris exposition in 1900.

Most of his collection has been obtained on his three trips around the world. An insurance man by profession, he had perhaps half a hundred microscopic items in his collection when he took his first world jaunt. Since that time the collection has grown rapidly and Charbonneau expects to add to it greatly next year when he starts a two-year world journey.

The collector believes he possesses the tiniest object ever made by human hands in the piece of glass containing the Biblical verse. He obtained the article from a friend, a New York business man whose hobby is the printing of minute characters. The words were cut with a diamond point.

Charbonneau believes artists and artisans have lavished some of their best work upon miniature objects in a whimsical and oftentimes humorous way.

The collector says the hazelnut originally contained 5,000 spoons, but that nearly 2,000 have been lost through frequent handling.

Pheasant, Given Shelter, Turns "Dog in Manger"

McKean, Pa.—A cock pheasant that was allowed by Robert Meeker, of McKean, to stay in his chicken house repaid the kindness shown to him by fighting and nearly killing 30 White Leghorn cockerels. Mr. Meeker had found the pheasant in the chicken yard when the weather was 30 degrees below zero and gave the bird shelter in a chicken house where he had penned up 30 Leghorn roosters.

He was worried for fear the wild bird would be set upon by the cockerels. His fear was groundless. After the first day the pheasant was boss of the coop and before the end of a week it had assumed a dog in the manager attitude, refusing to allow the chickens to eat until he himself had all he wanted. The cold spell and Mr. Meeker's patience ending about the same time, the cock pheasant was driven out, and again peace reigns among the Leghorn roosters.

Inventory Helps Refit Valley Forge House

Valley Forge, Pa.—Guided by an inventory found by Albert Cook Myers, which lists the furniture of the home at the time George Washington occupied it, the Valley Forge park commission has refurbished the historic structure here.

The first President rented the little green and white shuttered house from Isaac Potts, a young clergyman, for six months in 1777.

The residence was erected in 1756 and was the most pretentious of any in the vicinity at the time. It was restored to its original condition as nearly as possible in 1887. The commission says that the home now looks exactly as it did when Washington lived in it.

Business Girls Met Wednesday

Members of the Business and Professional Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year on Wednesday evening when they entertained their mothers at their annual mother and daughter banquet. The party was well attended and certainly in spirit, the mothers entered as heartily into the party as did the girls.

Miss Helen Bryant, president of the club, in a few well chosen words told the mothers how happy the club was to have them as guests and then called on Miss Mary Howard who gave the toast and tribute to the mothers.

Mrs. George W. Phillips responded for the mothers. The program was in charge of Miss Helen Bryant and was most informal and interesting.

Mrs. Howard Lewis gave a French dance dressed in a stunning period costume. Other numbers included informal singing, two stunts by the girls, "The Fire Alarm" and "The Doctor's Waiting Room," two selections by the girls' glee club and a musical specialty, "Old King Cole."

The regular supper will be omitted next week and instead the members will hold a benefit card party which all friends of the girls are urged to patronize. Miss Alma Tyler is chairman of the party. Announcement was also made that the annual election of officers will be held on Wednesday, April 25. The nominating committee is composed of Miss Mary Howard, Miss Alma Tyler, and Miss Elta Bishop, and had dwindled to a single vote.

Comedy Dancers At K. of C. Charity Ball

Grant & Rosalie, Who Were Featured at the Century of Progress Exposition, Will Appear Here at Coming Ball.

The addition of Grant & Rosalie, comedy dancers, to the program of the 15th annual charity ball of the Kingston Council, No. 277, Knights of Columbus, at the new Kingston Municipal Auditorium, on Friday evening, April 20, was announced today by J. David Seneca, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Mr. Seneca previously had announced the signing of Del O'Dell, who recently finished a long engagement at the Palladium Theatre, London, and Charles Carver, famed Swiss juggler.

Walter L. Foster, general chairman of the ball, has promised that the whole program will be presented promptly at the appointed hour. The doors of the spacious auditorium will open at 7 o'clock. A concert, interspersed with specialty numbers, will be given for one hour, beginning at 8 o'clock; the entertainment will be presented from 9 to 10 o'clock, and at the latter hour dancing will begin. The music will be provided by John Ernie's Imperial and Bob Steadling's Radiocasters, with Roger Rahn conducting.

Mr. Foster also wished to again assure the public that the entertainers may be seen from any seat in the house, because of the absence of decorations hanging from the girders.

An important meeting of all committee chairmen will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the K. of C. Home. Mr. Foster asks that all chairmen be present.

KINGSTON ARCHITECT HAS HOME IN MAGAZINE

In the May issue of Pictorial Review is an article describing a New England type of cottage designed by Charles E. Keefe, A. I. A., architect of New York. The article, by Robert M. Anderson, "The House I Wanted," describes the simple and dignified little cottage which Mr. Keefe has designed. Accompanying the article are two photographs of the house, a front and a rear view, as well as the lower and upper floor plan.

Flashes of Life
Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press
Farmers Play Bores

Fordyce, Ark.—Oddie, Guy and Ollie Word, unemployed brothers who took up farming, were undismayed when they failed to raise money to buy a mule to do the spring plowing.

Fire Rings Bell, Couple Escape—Pittsburgh—Aroused from sleep by the incessant jangle of their doorbell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Beech discovered their home in flames. The couple escaped.

Chicago—This being Friday, the 13th, members of the Anti-superstition Society of Chicago proposed to: Run for blocks just to let black cats cross their paths, spill salt, smash mirrors, raise umbrellas indoors, and search diligently for cross-eyed red-haired girls.

Just a Summer Vacation—Joliet, Ill.—The state prison is so crowded (it has 3,770 convicts within its walls) that the authorities are going to let some of them camp out in tents this summer. The tents will be placed within the prison enclosure and there will be plenty of guards on hand to see that the outdoor boys don't run away.

Friday the Thirteenth Note—Philadelphia—Alexander Primavera says he is not superstitious—much.

Arrested as an accessory to the theft of 15 gun casings from Fort Mifflin on March 13, he was held by U. S. Commissioner William S. Wacker for hearing on April 13. Primavera's eyes strayed to a calendar.

Jail O. K., But Not Cop—Salem, N. J.—Robert Edwards, 48, was a fugitive from justice for 15 minutes. Sentenced to the county jail on a drunk and disorderly charge he broke away from Officer Ed Conover. A quarter of an hour later he appeared at the jail.

Night Shirt Is Hunted—San Francisco—An appeal for aid in a search for Louis Peislinger, who was seen leaving the San Francisco Hospital dressed only in a night-shirt, was made by Dr. J. C. Geiger, director of public health. Dr. Geiger wants the nightshirt returned. It belongs to the city.

Monograms Back In Paris Fashions—Paris (AP)—Monograms and initials are back in the mode. Several street frocks have cravats fastened with crystal or glass chips with big silver initials across the tops. Gauntlet gloves of antelope have steel head initials on the outside of the big cuff.

Leaf Green Cape a Springtime Note—Paris (AP)—A sheer tulle cape of young leaf green adds a springtime note to an evening costume which Daniele Parola, the French screen star, wears this season. It goes with a Molyneux gown of pale pink sat in finished with a cluster of deep pink hollyhocks at the waist.

LINK AROUND WORLD TELEPHONE SERVICE

Last Gap, Between U. S. and Tokyo, Nears Completion.

Washington.—Armed the world telephone conversation. Linking men's voices in every important capital and commercial city is imminent, according to engineers.

Already the earth is completely inclosed by chains of telephone connections. From the United States men talk across the Pacific with Manila and across the Atlantic through Amsterdam, Berlin or Brussels to Manila again or eastern oceanic points.

Not working connections through Tokyo and Shanghai to the United States and Oceania are still needed to provide the links between the last great centers of population.

Tokyo Link Being Speeded.

The principal missing link—between the United States and Tokyo—is rapidly being forged and probably will fit into the chain before the end of the year, according to engineers here. Some authorities expect it within two or three months.

Tests have been conducted between the United States and Japan for about a year, indicating the prospect of regular service in the near future. Stanley Shoup, communications expert in the Department of Commerce, said.

During the last twelve months the United States opened telephone communications either for regular or special occasions with Russia, Venezuela, Manila, Guatemala, Panama, Costa Rica and Nicaragua. Earlier it opened communications with virtually every nation in Europe and South America and even with South Africa.

In all, 52 nations are in telephone contact with each other, and every nation having more than 100,000 telephones, except Japan and China, is in part of some worldwide chain.

Work on Java Connection.

In addition to perfecting the connection between the United States and Japan, Japanese and Dutch engineers are perfecting the link between Tokyo and Bandung in Java, which is the terminus of two chains to Europe and a junction between Europe, Australia and New Zealand. Manila and Bandung are connected already.

All this development has come since March 10, 1926, when Alexander Graham Bell conversed in Boston with a companion seated in another room a few feet away. Most of the American international telephone development has occurred since 1922, when only Cuba and Canada were linked with the United States.

House of Lords Amazed at Convicts' Impudence

London.—Brimmington prison has long been reckoned one of the toughest of British penal institutions. The prisoners mutilated there in 1932.

Now the bishop of Exeter thinks the trouble is that they do not have compulsory attendance at Sunday service. Instead of going to chapel, the convicts lie on their beds and read novels, the bishop told the House of Lords. Rude songs were sung at the prison concerts, he charged.

Out of a total of 200 Church of England prisoners, the Sunday congregations often numbered only five, said the bishop.

And the growing tendency towards impudence in modern crime is reflected in the conduct of the prisoners. The prison chaplain received a threat that if he didn't make the concerts more amusing the prisoners would get him dismissed, said the bishop.

The bishop himself withdrew his application to hold a service for the inmates after the mutiny, when the governor told him that he could not be responsible for his safety.

Marsh, Once Large Lake, Yields Steamboat Relics

Horicon, Wis.—Horicon, at one time the site of the largest artificial lake in the country, upon which steamers navigated daily, has yielded up a number of old relics. In the exact center of the marsh, now a game preserve, bits of wreckage have been found which were identified with ships scheduled to arrive in port fifty years ago. In one spot parts of a large boiler surrounded by blocks of quarried stone indicated the conclusion of one voyage.

Two other vessels are known to have gone down in the lake. One, a scow, sank in July, 1837, when lightning struck it during a hurricane, killing three of the crew and seriously injuring the remaining thirteen. The other disaster occurred two years later, when the boiler of the steamer Winer exploded, killing two.

Student Drinking Drops With Dry Law Repeal

Milwaukee.—With the advent of repeal, student drinking has decreased noticeably, in the opinion of Charles Coburn, manager of the student union at Marquette university. His reason is that most students find the new liquor system a bit beyond their means.

Father Dies in Dance of Joy Over Son's Birth

Whoeing, W. Va.—“It's a boy,” a beaming nurse told John Ward, thirty-two, in a hospital here. Overcome with joy, Ward collapsed about the corridor. He slipped, fell, and fractured his skull. A few hours later, before he had seen his son, he died.

A Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON — It might have been the ordinary spring-like weather in Washington, but it was not. The weather was not the only thing that was not ordinary. The weather was not the only thing that was not ordinary.

Representative Wadsworth of New York, former republican senator whose name is mentioned in connection with his party's hopes for 1936, has moved the new deal in a nation-wide address.

Senator Wadsworth of Maine, in a speech before the republican state convention of that state, urged militant opposition to those vagaries in government toward which in our temporary distress we have been beguiled.

Borah Chides Senate. BORAH of Idaho, ever alert to sense a shift in the political winds, has given indications that all is not well in his eyes. In a recent speech in the senate he all but laughed at congress for surrendering its authority in the matter of processing taxes.

Speaker Rainey is threatening to make public his "blacklist" of democrats in the house who have opposed and voted against the administration on important issues.

Allegations of "communism" in the "brain trust" are in for an airing with republicans all set for any possible political morsel that may drop from the investigating committee's table.

President Hoover has journeyed as far from the Pacific coast as the range on a confidential but highly provocative mission. Jim Watson of Indiana is reported to be working toward reorganization of the republican national committee with possibly himself as chairman.

And there are many other signs, even although faint, pointing toward reanimation of the forces of G. O. P.

Skepticism Revived. ORDINARILY such happenings would go unnoticed by politicians and those who make it their business to keep tabs on politics. At the present, however, the faintest stir is set down and subjected to careful analysis.

The past year has been one devoid of the usual in politics. Aside from occasional long-distance sniping, politicians for the most part have been as quietly bewildered by the dazzling parade put on by the present administration as have the common, every day citizens.

Topper Spurs Himalayan Climb. London (AP)—Hugh Rutledge, leader of the Mount Everest expedition of last year, revealed today that an old opera hat recently formed an important item in the equipment. It was offered as a prize to the porter who would go highest on the mountain.

Moscow Subway Reveals Fact. Moscow (AP)—Defense of the 16th and 17th centuries, when excavations began for Moscow's new subway system, revealed an important fact. The subway system was built on the site of a 17th century fortress.

Spring Mode Brings Back "Slit" Skirts

By ADELAIDE KERN

Paris again has led the fashion world before the war, and with the springtime mode.

Patou has launched some slinky evening frocks, slit in front to a point sometimes above the knee or clasped up the back of a puffed train. The gowns, designed of white, sapphire blue, almond green and nasturtium orange, crepe or satin, are generally fashioned with high front and fairly low back details which often, when to cover the shoulder.

Come With Coates.
Most of them are designed with a little coat or cape which may be tossed easily over the shoulders to keep women from shivering while they wait for their guests. Sometimes the coates match; again, they contrast with the color of the frock. Sun-ray pleated yellow chiffon capes and shell pink moire coates go with black frocks, while sapphire blue coates are accompanied by wraps of the same shade.

Daytime frocks put their slit above the waist, many of them being slashed in the back or front of the bodice and faced with a contrasting color. Most of them are designed of black crepe or black satin lightened with touches of pale green, shell pink or dead white. One black crepe trimmed with white moire ruffles is slit up the back of the waist to reveal a white crepe inset.

Two-Toned Frocks.
Summertime frocks to wear in town show many two-toned or tri-colored effects. Most of them are fashioned of dark crepes, micro-suede prints or plaids, and are worn with a little cape or sleeveless jacket of the same fabric.

One smart silk of black, white and red shadow plaid is topped by a little waist-length cape, while a navy blue crepe worn with a sleeveless jacket of the same fabric has a big white butterfly jabot splashed with blue dots the size of a quarter. Three colors blend in another striking costume. It is a simple black crepe summer suit with a black and white striped taffeta vest touched with emerald green at the neckline and worn with an emerald green straw sailor tilted over one eye.

Modena, April 12.—Officials of the Lathrop and Shea Construction Co., of New Haven, Conn., were in Modena, Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of estimating the cost of an overhead bridge on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad crossing, south of Modena village. HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—If there were any doubt that Lilyan Tashman's niche in the corridors of film talent was exclusively her own, the doubt would be removed by a survey of possible "Tashman successors."

There are "smart dressers" among film actresses, and there are actresses who can give a good impersonation of the woman whose heart is of gold—because she thinks of little else. But the combination is rather rare, and that is one reason the actress whose death so shocked Hollywood was always in demand.

Teasdale A Prospect

Fans who saw Verree Teasdale, the statuesque blonde, in "Fashion Follies of 1934" may think first of her. As the bogus countess she achieved a hard glitter not unlike that which, combined with humor, made Lilyan the first thought of casting directors when roles of the sort came up. Miss Teasdale, a young woman of considerable personal charm, already is becoming known for smartness in dress, although it is only recently that she achieved consideration as a screen actress of prominence.

On the stage she played the hard-boiled leader of three gold-diggers in "The Greeks Had a Word for It," but when she came to pictures she played romantic leads. She was cast for the "Fashion Follies" and it was after seeing her performance that Warner brothers signed her on contract—obviously to repeat the characterization frequently.

Liked Free-Lancing

Smart, sophisticated, extremely well dressed, Verree Teasdale would seem to be the logical "Tashman successor." But the casting directors will still be in a quandary when it comes time to cast a "Tashman type." Miss Teasdale is under contract—while Lilyan, for the most part, preferred to free-lance.

Miss Tashman, condemned by her individuality to portray in film after film the role of a smart gold-digger, was like most players in her desire to "do something different." She wanted to be an actress of parts rather than a type. Her friends here were glad that in the last picture she finished, "Wine, Women and Song," she achieved that ambition—at least, reports have it, she played an entirely sympathetic role.

Regarding the Tashman flair for clothes, Travis Ranton, the Paramount stylist, analyzes it as a genius, not so much for creating fads and fashions, as for foreseeing far in advance what trends the mode would take. In that talent, he says, she was unique among actresses.

SAYS DEPRESSION AIDED WHOLE SYSTEM OF EDUCATION

Ithaca, April 13.—One advantage of the depression has been a closer study of the whole system of public education in the United States, in the opinion of Professor Clyde B. Moore of the department of public education at Cornell, who says that public education is a major industry with property investments of more than seven billion dollars and a yearly tax bill of two and one-half billions.

The studies showed, he says, possibilities for enormous savings and far-reaching improvements. "Among the most expensive schools in the country are 145,000 one-room schools, and 12,000 rural high schools that have less than 100 pupils. More than 7,000 country schools have five or fewer pupils. In some schools the cost to keep each pupil exceeds $1,000 a year. Two and three hundred dollars a year is fairly common."

Since the quality of education in these very small schools is likely to be inferior, Professor Moore asserts, "many states have become aroused and are taking steps to solve the problem. Some states have found they can cut school costs four or five millions of dollars by closing all one-room schools of fewer than twelve pupils and transporting the children to neighboring schools."

Attention is also being given to consolidation of small school districts, general re-housing of rural schools, and large scale purchase of school equipment and supplies, along with other ways of saving. In addition, a trend for more federal support in education is noticeable, and this should be encouraged as an aid to the spirit of all communities.

The world's smallest city is Chippingham, England, which for 300 years has consisted of two thatched cottages, an abandoned canal and a railway station, yet is classed as a "city."

Test For New Deal In Coming Elections

Thirty-five Senators And a New House of Representatives Will Be Elected In November.

New York, April 12 (AP)—The test for the new deal will come in the coming elections. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November.

Democratic leaders interpreted the results of the new deal as a test for the new deal. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November.

The size of the Democratic vote in the new House of Representatives will be a test for the new deal. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November.

In Pennsylvania, May 15, Republican leaders will test the new deal. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November.

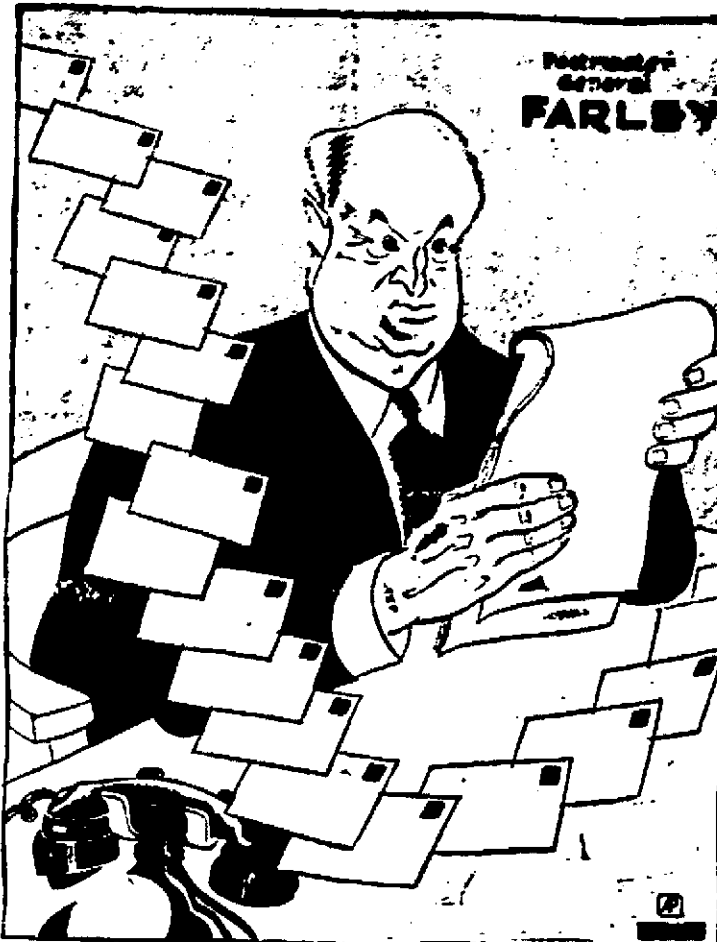

Senator David A. Reed, seeking re-election, has said: "I will continue to support the new deal. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November."

Alvin Karpis, President Roosevelt's enemy, has said: "The new deal is a disaster. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November."

Things for which I have fought all my life. The new House of Representatives will be elected in November.

WASHINGTON HEADLINERS

No. 5—"Big Jim" Farley Puts The Personal Touch In Politics

or not, he swings around with a satisfied grin at the freedom in that tone.

He sits behind a modest desk in a little square room with a pencil stuck over his ear, reminiscent of the days when it would have been offered a customer to sign on the dotted line. A healthy pink glow over his brow and unthatched crown.

Around the walls hang pictures of mustachioed predecessors in his post, colorful maps of air routes and mementos of the men who carry the mails.

The Club Member.

Interpersed are framed certificates to show James Aloysius Farley in a Red Man, an Eagle, a Knight of Columbus—but most of all, an Elk. Standing out conspicuously is a document in emerald scroll proclaiming him in good standing with the Ancient Order of Hibernians. Grave and official is his Kentucky colonel's commission.

All those membership certificates bespeak Farley's celebrated ability to "get about and see people."

Torch-Toter.

There's mellow atmosphere in the gray, towered brick-ple on Pennsylvania avenue which houses the post office department.

Farley started his political career in much the same surroundings. It is said that in 1896 at Havertown, N. Y., where he was born, he was allowed as a lad of eight to carry a torch in a William Jennings Bryan parade. He has been carrying the Democratic torch ever since.

Friends tell this one as a glass door to "Big Jim's" character: Al Smith, in 1918, made him port warden in New York as a political reward. Later he decided the post ought to be abolished, but first asked Farley if he honestly believed a port warden was necessary.

"No," said Farley.

Next—Senator Wagner.

Snow Storms in Catskill Mountains

The mountain regions had an April snow storm Thursday rather than an April shower. At Grand Hotel, Highmount, snow fell to a depth of three inches and in Pine Hill village about 4 1/2 of an inch fell. In the town of Denning 1 1/2 inches of snow is reported.

Automobiles experienced difficulty in making the steeper grades and even with chains traveling was difficult. The higher peaks of the mountains today stand out white and the trees are covered with a coating of ice.

There is one of the secrets of "Big Jim's" success. He went after the rock-ribbed upstate New York counties for Roosevelt like a salesman out to enlarge his territory. Opening new accounts had always been his specialty when he was "on the road."

According to his own accounts he must have talked to nearly 7,000 persons individually in making contacts for the Democratic standard-bearer. When he got home he wrote each one a follow-up letter to clinch the interview. He remembered well, and those who called him "Jim" before the Statue of Liberty was didn't get a letter starting, "Dear Mr. Farley."

There is a personal touch that marks everything he does. It is said that on his vacation trip to Italy he knew all about the purser's child having the croup and the deck steward's uncle on Bleeker street.

Average weekly sales in March were $16,258,452, compared with $14,955,343 in 1933, an increase of $1,262,574. Average weekly tonnage sales were 95,565, compared with 99,042 in March 1933, a decrease of 3,477 tons.

Carbon Monoxide. Few poison gases are more dangerous to man than carbon monoxide. Where phosgene and wartime gases have a characteristic color, taste and action which warns everyone of their presence, carbon monoxide is colorless and tasteless.

GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC MARCH SALES

Sales of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company for the five weeks period ending March 31 were $81,292,409. This compares with $74,979,542 for the same period in 1933 and is an increase of $6,312,867, or 8.42%.

March sales expressed in tons were estimated as 477,825 this year, compared with 495,208 in March 1933. This is a decrease in quantity of merchandise sold of 17,383, or 3.51%.

Paul Haas Elected to Accountant's Society

Paul R. Haas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Haas of 47 Third avenue, a graduate of Kingston High School and now a student at Rider College, Trenton, N. J., has been elected to the first group to the Accountant's Honorary Society, which requires among other things that candidates must have a general average of 85 per cent and records indicating superior future possibilities in the accountancy profession.

Election to the Accountant's Honorary Society must be from unanimous vote of the accounting members of the faculty, based upon the requirements of the society as formed by the petitioning group.

Peggy's Last Assignment

By DOROTHY DOOD

Copyright, 1934, by Dorothy Dood.

AS AT one o'clock on Wednesday afternoon the managing editor of the Review-Journal told Peggy to "go after" Freddie Dodge. At seven o'clock Thursday evening Peggy was packing up and going under the shadows of the Linden trees that lined the driveway into the city to the mansion—still "going after" the heroic Freddie.

During the time that had intervened Peggy had caught exactly five glimpses of Freddie, once all but surrounded by a group of friends and relatives at the station, later as he entered the elevator of the Vendome hotel, once the sight of his hat rising above the heads of the mayor and his reception committee.

And all the time Peggy had eaten two ham sandwiches, one soda cracker, four cups of coffee, and had perked a lollipop offered to her by the young man who was trying to get a "peek" for the Star. They had shared the same dinner in the Vendome hotel on Wednesday night until the desk clerk had none too politely asked them to get out. And unless Peggy had looked a little as she sat with the young reporter on the dinner she had had no sleep. For a time there had been quite a number of reporters though she was the only girl among them, but one by one they had fallen off. But Peggy had remained on the job, and here she was dragging one small foot after another out under the Linden trees that led to the house where Freddie was supposedly slumbering after his heroic achievement.

The facts of the case had, of course, all been duly spangled on the first pages of the Review-Journal and the other papers, but none had been able to get a single line of personal comment from the much-lauded young man—all no doubt because Freddie belonged to one of the exclusive old families who still avoided personal publicity as they would the plague. There had been a coal mine cave-in in the northern part of the state. Twelve miners had been buried alive. Peggy was so drowsy that she could not recall the details—only somehow this young Freddie whose family fortune had been made from the mines had hit upon a scheme of rescuing the men—a bold, hazardous, crazy scheme that offered one chance of success out of a thousand of failure. And to give the scheme a test some one had to make a descent and do something that might bring liberation to the imprisoned miners—and that almost certainly would bring destruction to the one who did it. And Freddie had accomplished the impossible. Peggy now couldn't quite remember what it was he had done. Anyway the miners were safe and so was he.

Peggy Wilber was rehearsing to herself the leading remarks she would make in case by any miracle she did encounter the young hero. She would have to trick him into some sort of personal comment. But Peggy reflected that a girl who had been without sleep as long as she had couldn't expect to get very far. She leaned up against one of the Linden trees and opened her bag—tried to get the little vanity case. But the bag seemed incredibly heavy and she couldn't make her fingers lay hold of the vanity case. Then Peggy was just dimly conscious of the fact that the gravel on the driveway was very rough. If she only had a pillow it wouldn't be so bad—and then it didn't even seem to matter about the pillow.

When it occurred to Peggy that she might try to open her eyes and see where she was she decided not make the effort.

"I'm sorry to disturb you," said the young man who appeared to be lifting her. "I thought perhaps you had fainted. I came out for a bit of a stroll—and found you in the driveway."

"Are you Mr. Freddie Dodge?" asked Peggy.

"Why, yes," he said. "And perhaps you had better tell me who you are. We might go up to the house while I telephone your people."

Inside the house Freddie had a hurried conversation with one of his sisters. "I could drive her back to her home tonight," he suggested.

"You could," said his sister. "But the poor girl seems terribly exhausted. She looks like a nice sort of girl. I think we had better give her something to eat and then let her stay here for the night. In the morning she'll probably be able to explain how she happened to be lying there in the driveway."

Two weeks later Peggy got a "call-down" from the city editor.

"What's come over you, anyway, young lady?" he asked. "Ever since that time you went after that Freddie Dodge you've been loafing. You were gone two days then and came in without a line. I'd fire you right now if I didn't think you'd snap out of this—and get your old kick back again. And what's this I hear about you being seen having tea at the Vendome the other afternoon with this Dodge bloke?"

Peggy shrugged her shoulders and tossed her lips.

"If that's the way you feel about it," threatened the city editor, "perhaps I'd better let you go."

"Thank you," said Peggy. "That saves me the trouble of resigning. You see—Mr. Freddie Dodge and I are planning to be married next week."

HOW TO MAKE

RICH SHORTCAKE

Two layers of biscuit dough rolled out very thin, make the best shortcake. Use more butter than usual in the making, and be sure the dough is very thinly spread in separate tins. After the dough is cooked, spread each layer with butter to increase its richness. Then place the berries on the lower layer, put the second layer on top and add more berries.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 12. (P)—The commodities market today was characterized by a general decline in prices. The drop was much more than seasonal and was attributed to a falling off in coal shipments. Heavy movements of coal in the last week of March were said to have been caused by anticipatory buying to escape higher prices as well as fears of strikes. The subsequent decline in the first April week, consequently, occasioned no surprise. The total of 55,887 cars, however, was 65,826 ahead of the same 1933 week and 12,264 above the corresponding period in 1932.

Refracting Telescopes Are Difficult to Make

Most people think of a telescope as a long tube with a lens in one end and an eyepiece in the other, says Literary Digest. In instruments of this kind, known as refracting telescopes, the light is gathered by a large lens and focused in an eyepiece. Very large astronomical telescopes make use of another principle, that of reflection, because of the difficulty of making successful large refracting telescopes. In reflecting telescopes the light from distant objects is collected by a huge concave mirror, called the speculum, and focused on a smaller mirror, which in turn transmits the light to an eyepiece. When used for taking photographs the eyepiece is replaced by a camera.

Since the light-gathering power of a telescope mirror is proportional to its area, the bigger the mirror the more useful it will be—within certain limits. Thus, a 100-inch mirror would theoretically be able to "see" four times as much as a 50-inch one. The 100-inch telescope at Mount Wilson sees about as far as light can travel in 300,000,000 years.

Ancient British Village

The village of Cuddington, Surrey, England, is more than 1,250 years old and history records the existence of the place in the year 675, with the passing of Athelstan and Edward the Confessor. The neighborhood was famous from the reign of Henry VIII to that of Charles II as a center of royal festivities. In the sixteenth century Henry VIII fenced in some 1,000 acres of park and built Nonsuch palace, where for nearly two centuries the revels of the court were held. Later Queen Mary sold Nonsuch to the earl of Arundel. Afterwards it was possessed by Queen Elizabeth, and it was here that the ill-fated earl of Essex was arrested prior to his removal to the Tower of London. In 1670 King Charles gave the palace to Barbara Villiers, who dismantled the castle and sold the contents.

A request from a Kansas City fire company for a wheel chair for a paralyzed woman of their acquaintance, published in a morning newspaper, brought offers of eight by 9 o'clock the same morning.

Coats on the Spring Style Program

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THE calendar declaring advent of spring, the thermometer contradicting the glad news by registering a lingering touch, and in the meantime the spring style parade schedules for an early date—what to wear, ay, that's the question! With what tantalizing persistence does the clothes problem disturb our peace of mind at this time of the year.

However, here's to take cheer, for we believe you will agree with us that in the perfectly stunning cape-coats in the picture we find the answer. It is not only that the soft, downy light-as-a-feather rabbit worsteds which fashion these coats assure protection against almost anything which is apt to happen in the way of weather, but when it comes to "looks" it would be difficult to conceive of a new spring outfit which could surpass either of these distinctive models.

Both are developed in reversible fabric of soft rabbit woolen, with one side pastel monotone and the other side plaided in harmonizing shades. This type of material is well suited to the draped lines favored for spring, being especially adaptable to the styling of the hood or monk collars, which so smartly detail many of the newer coats. The fabric feels very soft against the flesh, having only the finest rabbit worn into it. In its modernized version it has no resemblance to the so-called hairy fabrics introduced last fall, which were oftentimes rough in surface and inclined to feel scratchy. Combining as it does, light weight with warmth, weaves of rabbit woolen are acceptable for wear from now into late spring and then some. Nor has the half been told of the charm of this material since mere black and white print fails to convey the message of beguiling color which these reversible weaves carry. The very spirit of spring breathes through the lovely pastel monotones reversed as they are with large plaids in harmonizing shades. All you have to do is to know your colors and the salespeople will do the rest, placing before your eager eyes either the materials to be bought by the yard or the very garments themselves, styled as in the illustration, of rabbit worsteds in exquisitely springlike grays and greens which stand foremost on fashion's color card, or in the misty pastel blues which are of wide appeal or mayhap in a voguish dusky pink, or if you prefer in one of the new yellowish tones which spell chic with emphasis, the color sympathy ever enhanced with a blended reverse plaiding.

In the model to the left the coat and long cape are made all in one. It is interesting to note, too, that the coat part is backless to the waist, so that the cape clings closely to the shoulders. The wrap-around effect is characteristic of this season's slenderized silhouettes.

The shorter caped ensemble to the right is styled along unusual lines. The unique side closing with buttons which look like shells from the seashore, and the standup collar which fences the throat are smart features. The plaid-lined cape is made with long belt-ends which pull through a slit at the back, tying at the front casually and adjustably, so that the garment can be fitted exactly to the wearer's figure. A one-piece dress with elbow-length sleeves is worn under this cape. It has a high neck closing with a narrow tie of the reversible fabric swatches of the plaid appearing on the tops of two little pockets.

FOR HER TROUSSEAU

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

NET AND PRINTED SATIN FOR MISSES

Net for junior misses is here in all its femininity and is displaying a great variety of trimming. Lace and metal combined with chiffon has been well introduced in stiffened or starched fashions.

Tailored in silhouette, you can take your touches either in crisp effects or in the softer ruffy effects. Also, net is now being shown in the very happiest colors. There is something about black net, but it comes in appealing blues, the summer tones of yellow, peach.

Typical of net frocks was one in black, flared from the knee to the hemline—which showed considerable of a silver slipper and a gleaming buckle.

Also the juniors should know that printed satins in navy, brown, black, red, green—all with touches of white, are quite something for spring.

Now, the Shankless Shoe, Hardly Anything at All

Here's the latest development. After years of experimentation a shoe has been turned out that to all appearances is completely shankless. That means that in under the arch of your foot the sole simply vanishes into nothingness.

A black kid opera pump, for example, might have some sweet and lovely stitching as decoration which would extend right under the shoe, being joined under the arch by a seam running from sole to heel. In case you haven't caught on, this new system makes a size 8 foot look about 5, and 3 practically nothing at all.

Popular Dress Trimming

Hand fastenings are in high favor as trimmings for day time and afternoon dresses and jacket costumes and light-weight women dresses and costumes are especially attractive when treated with this type of embellishment.

Coral Reefs

Ordinary coral reefs are a whitish color and consist of white calcareous framework. The precious red coral is found widespread on the borders and around the islands of the Mediterranean sea. Black coral which grows to a considerable height and thickness is in the tropical water off Australia.

Composition of the Air

The chemical composition of the air is very different in the upper levels than at the earth. Water vapor ceases to exist at about 10 miles, the height of the highest clouds. Oxygen and nitrogen are less abundant as one progresses aloft and hydrogen and helium are more abundant.

Our War With Mexico

The crisis which brought about the war with Mexico was precipitated by the annexation of Texas. Mexico had never recognized or accepted the independence of Texas. An argument arose over a boundary question between Mexico and Texas. President Polk accepted the Texas point of view and ordered General Taylor into the disputed zone. By the Americans this was regarded as an act of defense but it was denounced by the Mexicans as an invasion of their country.

Beware of Blondes!

They Murder Most London—Gentlemen may prefer them, according to Anita Loos, but a British amateur criminologist asserts that blondes are more murderous than brunettes.

Paradoxically enough, however, Gilbert A. Pean, who also adds poignancy to his bobble, estimates that brunettes are more criminally inclined. In support of this he points to the increase of crime in the big cities, and a corresponding increase in the number of persons who possess dark hair.

It had been thought, until comparatively recently, that the greater number of suicides occurred among the fair-headed. However, according to French Psychologist Duval, brunettes, when they take to killing, kill themselves. Whereas, he says, blondes tend more toward homicide.

Senators Did Not Take Part in Parade

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The senators who greeted President Roosevelt at the railroad station today did not participate in the parade features of the welcome.

The members of the House marched from the Capitol to the nearby railroad station in columns of fours behind the Marine Band. "Who are they to think it beneath their dignity to march behind a brass band to meet the President," said a reporter.

"Some of the senators should be following a plow instead of a brass band."

Meanwhile, McCauley was in New York today organizing his staff and making other preparations for the investigation. He indicated that he probably would have four assistants to help him with the inquiry.

SULLIVAN SAYS HE DIDN'T KNOW HOW TO PLAY DICE

Washington, April 13 (AP)—Repeated denials by Colonel John F. Sullivan that he had gambling connections in New Orleans or controlled the internal revenue collector's office there, brought to a close today the Senate Finance Committee hearing on the confirmation of D. D. Moore as Louisiana revenue collector.

Senator Huey Long (D-La.) in opposing Moore's confirmation, had maintained that Sullivan, New Orleans lawyer-sportsman, was the "gambling king of the south," and dominated the office of collector of internal revenue at New Orleans.

Questioned by Long, Sullivan repeated today that he did not even know how to play dice, and added "I have never been in a gambling house, pool room or handbook in Louisiana."

Drying Oils
The bureau of standards says that the most commonly used chemical characteristic, which distinguishes a semi-drying oil, such as cottonseed oil, from a drying oil is the iodine number, which is lower for cottonseed than for linseed oil. The drying oils contain a greater proportion of the glycerides of unsaturated fatty acids, such as linoleic and linolenic acids.

Land of Middle Ages

In many respects, Inner Mongolia is a "Land of the Middle Ages." Mongol warriors still use wild ponies with harnesses on long poles, and a reputation for the Dalai Lama attracts hundreds of pilgrims across the vastness of miles of rolling plains. A Mongol chieftain still prefers to live in felt yurt or tents, as did their fathers, and visitors of note are lodged not in permanent buildings but in yurts which are entered through a hidden vestibule.

TO STUDY SEA LIFE IN LOWER DEPTHS

Scientists to Go Down Half a Mile for Observation.

Washington. — Continuation next summer of the unique deep-sea investigations of Dr. William Beebe under a grant of funds by the National Geographic Society of Washington has been announced by Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the society. Doctor Beebe, who is director of the department of scientific research of the New York Zoological Society, and a noted oceanographic naturalist, has developed during the last few years an entirely new method of underwater investigation which permits men to descend safely to depths which hitherto could not be reached.

Use Two-Ton Diving Ball.

Accompanied by an assistant, Doctor Beebe plans to descend to a depth of nearly half a mile below the surface of the sea inside the heavy steel ball (the "bathysphere") in which he has previously made the record descent for a living man—2,200 feet. The unique diving ball is familiar to millions of Americans who saw it last summer and fall when it was on exhibit in the central room of the hall of science at the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago.

It is a thick-shelled sphere four-and-a-half feet in diameter and weighing two tons. It has windows of fused quartz fashioned to withstand the many tons of pressure to which it is subjected by the sea water. Through the windows beams of light are sent out into the water and the strange creatures of the ocean depths are observed. A steel cable lowers the sphere from a barge at the surface, and rubber-enclosed wires afford telephone communication and electric light.

No Air Tubes to Surface.

Furnishing air from the surface to the great depths reached by the bathysphere is impracticable. The observers are sealed into the ball, and an automatic valve steadily releases a supply of oxygen. Chemicals exposed in racks absorb moisture and carbon dioxide. At the end of the dive the observers are living in an atmosphere of slightly compressed air.

During Doctor Beebe's descents in 1930 and 1932 a number of forms of sea life not known before were discovered. Many of the strange creatures were found to possess glowing and flashing light organs which help them in their battle for life in the depths to which no sunlight ever penetrates. Doctor Beebe expects to add many new discoveries this year, and with the aid of additional new apparatus it is hoped to prolong the dives to five hours in order that detailed observations can be made on the wholly unknown activities and habits of deep sea creatures. As to the possibilities for pushing farther into the sea depths, he has written: "Next to going to Mars, there seems nothing more exciting and unpredictable."

In the past, the deep sea diving investigations have been carried on from laboratories made available by the British government on tiny Nonsuch Island, of the Bermudas. This islet has recently been set aside for a government school, but this development will not in any way hamper the new expedition. It will make its headquarters on the mainland near Nonsuch at Doctor Beebe's new, perfectly equipped laboratory near the Bermuda biological station, and will carry on its underwater investigations in the same area used in past years. The work will start early in July.

Biographer of Lincoln

Also Born in Log Cabin

Erie, Pa.—The log cabin origin of Abraham Lincoln probably was one reason why Ida M. Tarbell, a native of Erie county and considered the most famous woman in this district, devoted much of her writing to the Civil War President.

For Miss Tarbell herself was born in a log cabin—in Amity township, Erie county—seventy-seven years ago. Although she now lives in Bethel, Conn., and maintains an office in New York, much of her early life was spent in northwestern Pennsylvania during the stirring days of the oil "boom."

Miss Tarbell was the only girl in the freshman class at Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa., when she enrolled there with intentions of becoming a missionary. After graduation, however, she taught in an Ohio seminary, directed a small magazine, then turned to historical and biographical writing.

Yankee Colony in Paris

Drops Off to Only 7,000

Paris.—Hard times have caused the "American City of Paris" to repatriate its "citizens" to the United States in such vast numbers that its size has decreased in the last four years from 20,000 to 7,000.

The remaining Americans are divided into three groups: Hardened long-timers and wealthy expatriates who have practically become French except for their passports; the "big chiefs" of American business houses still maintaining Paris offices (banks, importing firms, news agencies, purchasing branches, etc.); and Americans who, in A. E. F. veteran parlance, have a "life sentence"—or a French wife. This class is probably the greatest of all, numbering 3,000 (including husband, wife and children).

The American colony in Paris is down to its pre-war size and shrinking further.

County Has Majority At Boiceville Camp

Shelton, April 13.—A total of 50 Ulster county young men have been received as recruits at the conservation corps camp at Boiceville under the new enrollment of April 1 to 15. The woodmen rookies taken into the 215th Co., C. C. C. thus far are evenly divided between Kingston and the remainder of the county. The new enrollment brings the company personnel up to its full strength of 200 men and incidentally makes the camp an Ulster county unit in respect to membership as well as location. A majority of the youths now in training at Boiceville come under the head of "Junior C. C. C.", the average age of the men being considerably younger than in the case of previous enrollments. A number of the recruits have already received their preliminary training in field work under the tutelage of state foresters and veteran members of the company.

Baseball a Big Interest.

Interest in baseball is increasing daily at the big camp though no practice games have yet taken place. The boys spend much of their leisure time warming up at pitch and catch on the company streets and some good material is being brought out in this manner. John McKelvey, north Olive's well known bachelor farmer, has donated the use of one of his fields across Route 28 from the camp grounds as a baseball diamond, and "Bill" Gademian, proprietor of the canteen, has agreed to attend to the matter of grading and otherwise fitting the field for games this spring and summer. It is planned by Lieut. Sydney Freilich, director of recreations and athletics, to put on some big games at the new field during the season, and doubtless the baseballers of the 215th company will emulate the crack basketball five of the camp in addition to the athletic laurels of Camp No. 2. The public will be welcome at these games. There will be no admission charge but the "hat will be passed."

Bi-weekly Dances

The recreation hall this week has served as a temporary barracks for the accommodation of a part of the new enrollees. Barracks No. 3, of which Marshall Easton is the member in charge, won the efficiency plaque as a result of the regular Saturday morning inspection. A circular driveway with a sub-base of huge Esopus creek cobblestones has practically been completed on the second level of the grounds near the administration building and C. C. C. garage. The camp now has a number of these well-paved drives which, together with the footwalks constructed from the old tent flooring, make traveling between the several units a pleasure in even the wettest weather. Members Frank Michetsch, Howell Cross and Louis Cole are staging bi-weekly dances on Saturday nights at the Firemen's Hall in Phenicia. Everyone is invited to attend these dances, one of which, a balloon dance, will take place on Saturday of this week. Music for the stepping at these social affairs is furnished by Hi Henry's Aristocrats of Saugerties. A good-sized crowd attended the Phenicia hop two weeks ago.

And Still No School

The Federal instructor under the new C. C. C. educational plan not having arrived at Camp No. 2, no school is held except the usual lectures on technical subjects and field work which are mandatory for the woodsmen on rainy days. Recent visitors at Boiceville included General Holbrook of Governor's Island, Lieut. Colonel Whitney of Fort Ontario, and Major Gilliland and Chaplain Barasch of Albany. Lieut. David Tillquist of the administration staff spent last week-end at his home in

Edible Figs

There are two types of edible figs. One type will develop fruit without pollination and includes the White Adriatic, Black Mission and Kadota. The other type requires pollination and includes chiefly those called Calimyrna, Stanford and San Pedro. Figs are insect-pollinated plants, the pollen-bearing flowers and the edible fruit being borne on different trees. The male tree is known as the capri fig. The staminate flowers which bear the pollen are just inside the eye, and the gall flowers, which are modified female flowers, occupy the rest of the cavity of the fruit.

About Shoes

When shoes were first worn, thousands of years ago, it was the custom for a man to take off a shoe and give it to his neighbor as a pledge to seal a bargain or close a deal. Heels and stout soles were not invented till the fifteenth century. They were originally intended for riding, as they gave a firmer hold of the stirrup. Today, it takes 80 workpeople to make a shoe. 150 kinds of machines are employed in the various operations, and 450 processes have to be gone through before the boot or shoe is ready to be worn.

About 40 pounds of veal were consumed by the 40 woodsmen who remained in camp over Sunday. Official ratings prohibit the ownership of automobiles by members. Visitors are welcome at the camp during the day when properly introduced. No exchange of duty is allowed the men assigned to the several units and let out on furlough. The 215th Co. has a total of 200 men, 100 of whom are assigned to the several units and the work of the company. Everybody Knows that the Freeman Cost-a-Word Ad. Brings Quick Results. Try Them!

PROTECT YOURSELF From "BOOTLEG" MERCHANDISE!

*The Ads in the Freeman
Safeguard Your Buying*

INFERIOR "depression" merchandise is still flooding the country on the look-out for "suckers" who will buy. These goods are below a wholesome standard of quality—not worth the money or anywhere near it! Whether you order a quart of ice cream for Junior's birthday party or a brace of shirts for friend husband you cannot afford to take chances with this sub-standard merchandise.

How can you avoid being bilked on inferior goods—endangered by foodstuffs prepared in unsanitary surroundings—cheated on commodities made by children or sweated labor? There are two safe ways!

First, patronize reputable merchants. Certainly, avoid buying from the door-to-door peddler you know nothing about!

Second, read and shop regularly through the ads in The Freeman. Dealers who sell goods of sound quality do not hesitate to advertise them in the newspaper where you can read, study and compare their qualifications and prices. An advertiser who must spend money to tell you about his goods seldom endangers his investment by falsehoods and misrepresentation. A consistent advertiser whose business reputation depends on your continued good will never does!

Freeman Ads Protect Your Pocketbook

When you read The Freeman ads you can compare any merchant's offering for quality, description and price with others in the paper. You're protecting yourself against POOR quality and unreasonable charges. The reputable advertising merchant knows this. He welcomes your comparison. He knows it will build up your sense of discrimination, teach you to appreciate his own worthwhile goods and save you from making future mistakes.

Freeman Ads Safeguard Your Time

You'll have more time for leisure if you let The Freeman ads plan each shopping trip for you. Before you leave home you'll know just which stores you're going to visit and what you're going to buy. No time wasted in walking around town comparing items and prices in a dozen different stores. You've done all that BEFOREHAND—in the pages of The Freeman! Shopping through the ads gives you extra hours for doing the things you LIKE to do!

Freeman Ads Assure Lasting Satisfaction

When you've made it a habit to buy from reputable merchants you know about—from advertisers who aren't afraid to let you compare their offerings side by side with others—THEN you'll find yourself getting longer life, more wear, and a fuller, lasting satisfaction from all your purchases. You'll know just where to find quality. You'll be a discriminating buyer. If all women bought as carefully, the makers of inferior "sucker-bait" goods would have to quit business.

And the NRA Does Its Part

When you shop the ads remember to look for the familiar little symbol that provides the best protection of all! Goods advertised "NRA" mean that no little children drudged weary hours in their making—no tired men and women slaved in a sweat-shop for a pitiful wage. "NRA" assures you that your purchase is made and sold by well-paid men and women who like their jobs well enough to bring you a carefully made, quality product!

— what it means

— to store
70 million dollars worth of tobacco
— 4½ miles of warehouses

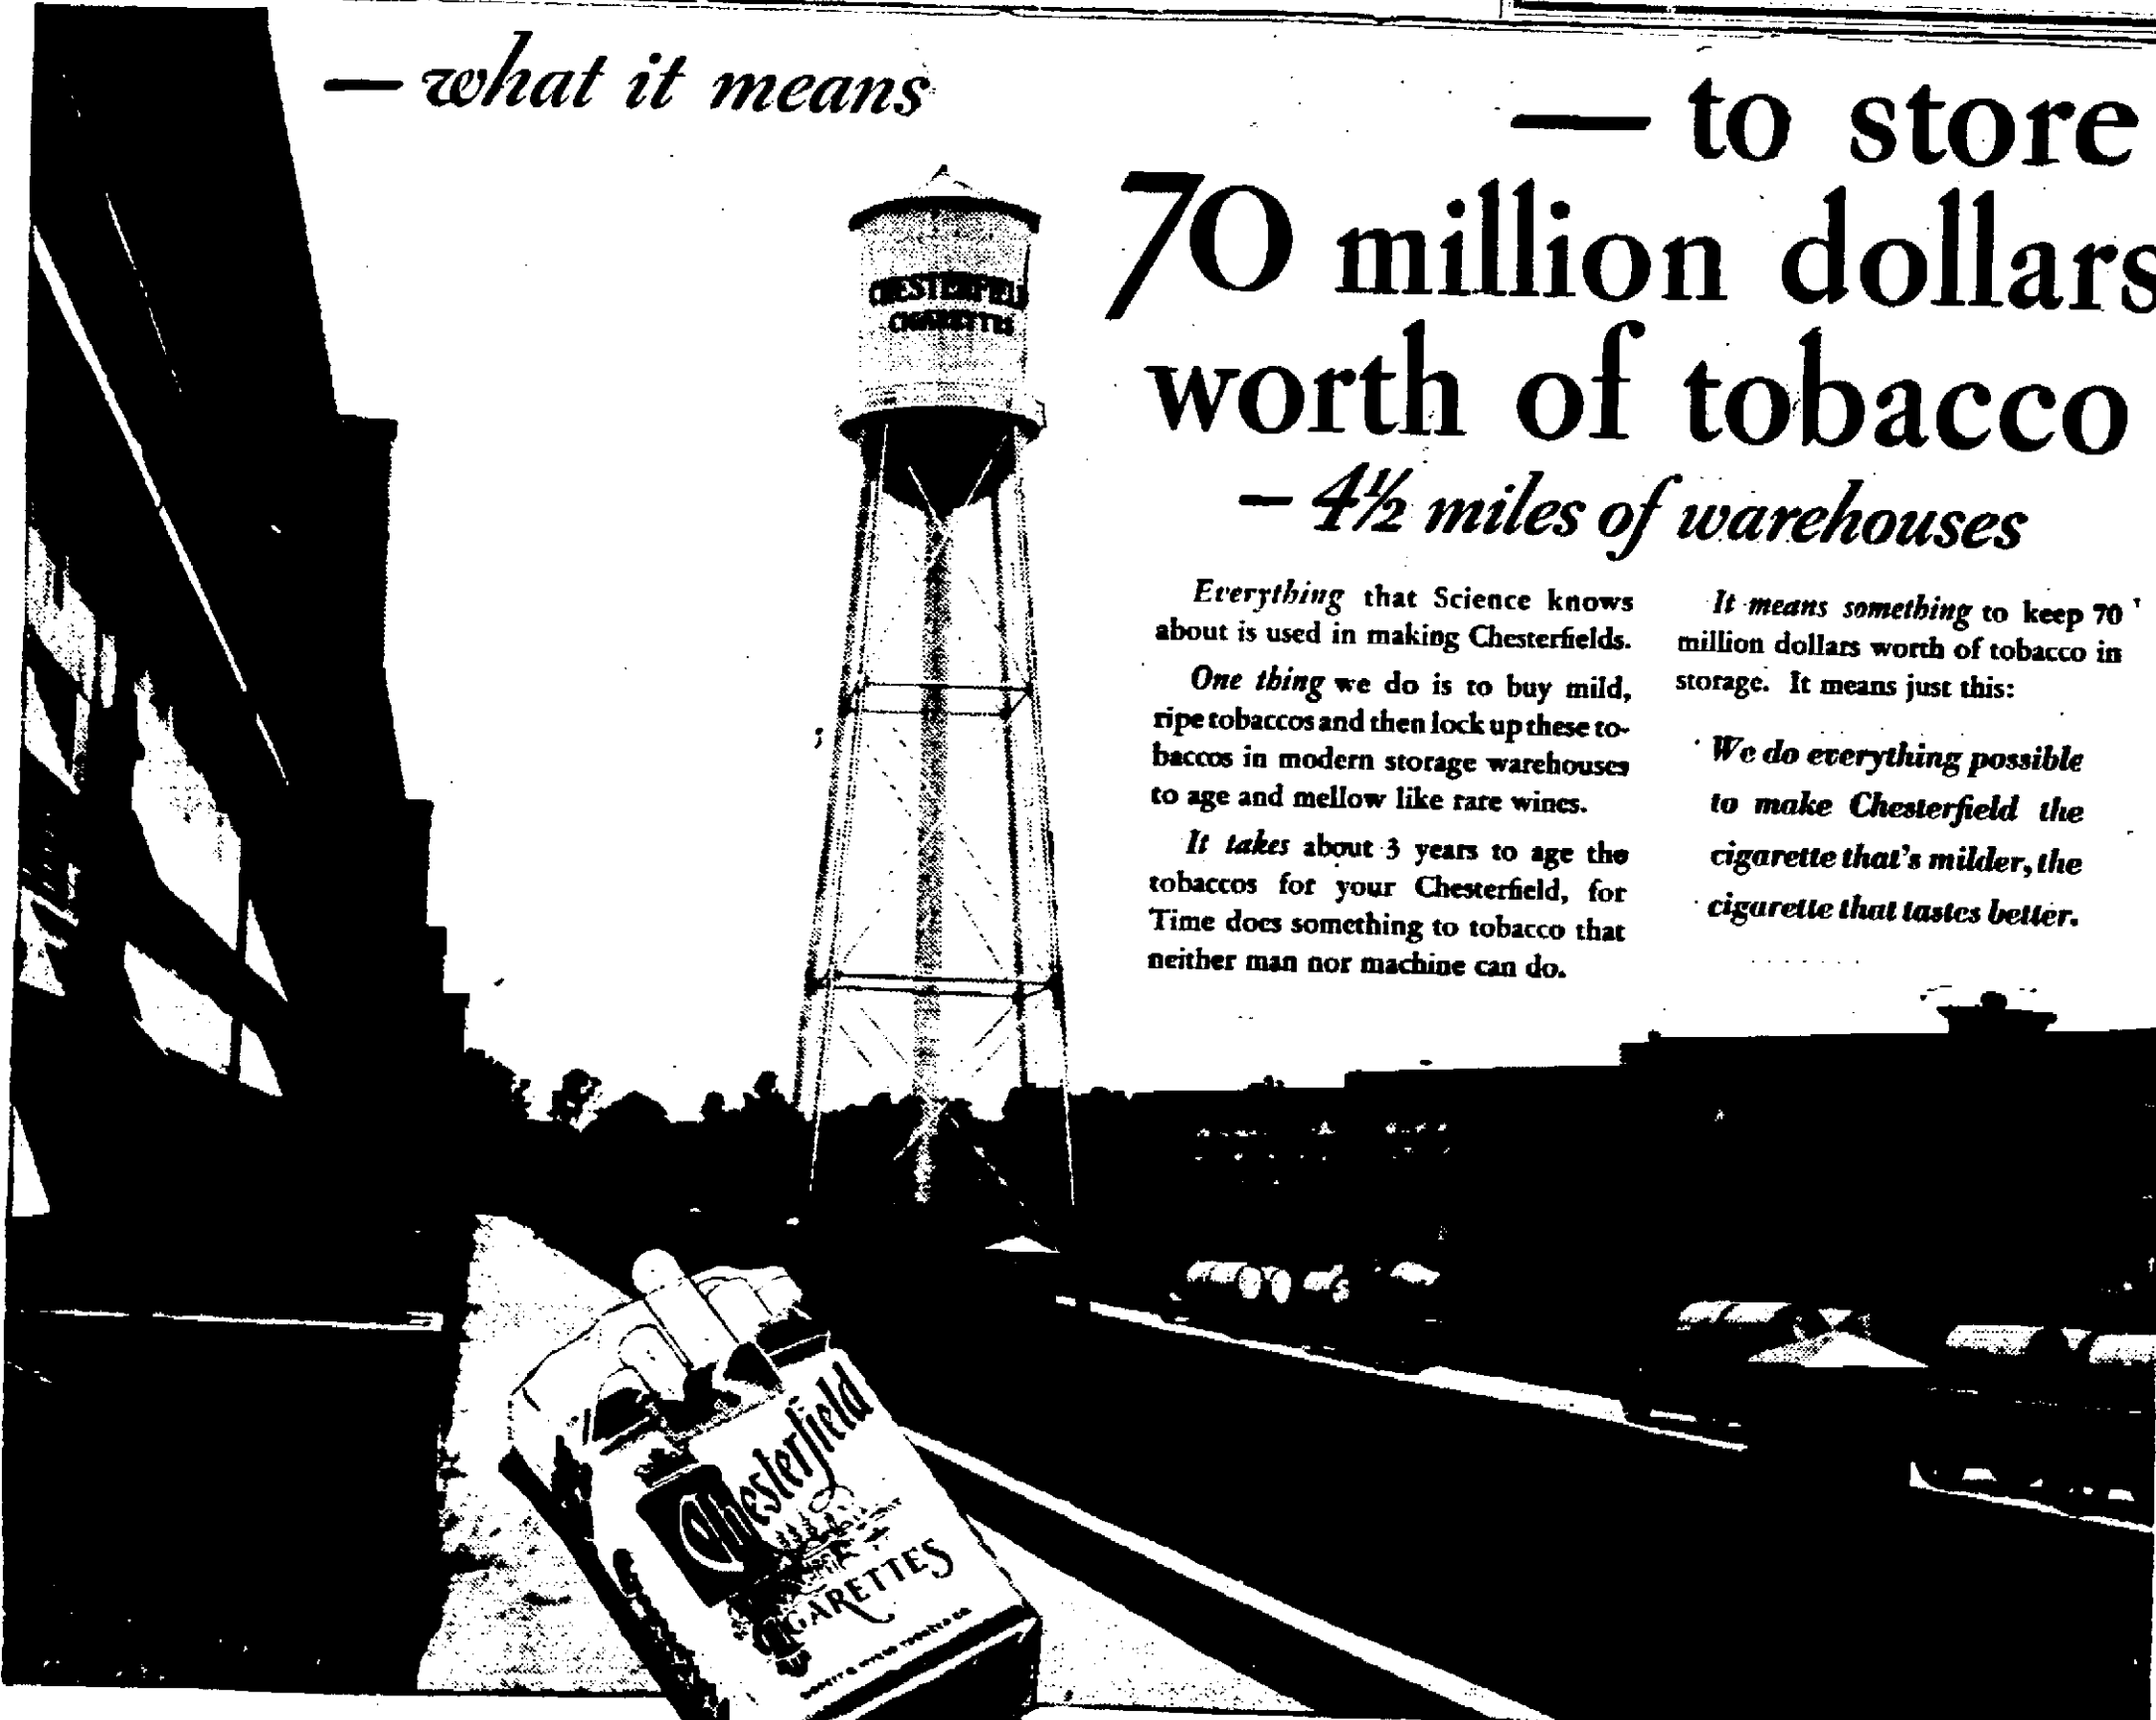

Everything that Science knows about is used in making Chesterfields.

One thing we do is to buy mild, ripe tobaccos and then lock up these tobaccos in modern storage warehouses to age and mellow like rare wines.

It takes about 3 years to age the tobaccos for your Chesterfield, for Time does something to tobacco that neither man nor machine can do.

It means something to keep 70 million dollars worth of tobacco in storage. It means just this:

We do everything possible to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

the cigarette that's Milder
